Boyce congratulates Hamish Cullenward on his appointment as Director

In recognition of his dedication and leadership in Boyce, Hamish Cullenward has been appointed as a Director.

Hamish completed a Bachelor of Commerce and Actuarial Studies at Australian National University (ANU) in 2010. After graduating, he worked for RiceWarner Actuaries in Sydney before joining Boyce as an accountant in July 2013. Hamish completed additional post-graduate studies to become a qualified chartered accountant in 2016 and a graduate of the Institute of Company Directors course in 2017. Hamish was appointed as a Manager in July 2017.

Hamish is excited about continuing to work with the Wagga team, our clients and the community. “I have loved my time since moving down here. The Riverina is such a diverse economy and it has been fascinating to get to know our clients and their businesses across so many different industries. I am looking forward to continue developing great relationships and extending the highly regarded services that Boyce provides throughout the region.”

Boyce Managing Director Phil Alchin congratulated Hamish on his appointment as Director noting, “Hamish exhibits many of the great Boyce traits, he faces up to challenges and provides great care to our clients and his team.”

“As Australia’s largest regionally based accounting firm, Boyce continues to provide unique careers in regional Australia for young people like Hamish. Through living the Boyce values of genuine care for our clients and being committed to helping our clients maximise their wealth, Hamish now has the opportunity, with the other Boyce Directors, to effectively own and operate his own business.”

Hamish lives in Wagga with his wife Kate and two small children. He is also a director for Kurrajong, an organisation local to the Riverina, which provides support, training and opportunities to people with a disability.

We trust that you will join us in congratulating Hamish on his appointment.

Ends.
