Boyce Still Top Ranked Regional Accounting Firm in Australia

In the recent Australian Financial Review (AFR) survey of the top 100 accounting firms, we are pleased to report that Boyce Chartered Accountants was ranked as the top regional firm in Australia.

The AFR list includes the most outstanding accounting firms in the country based on the number of partners, growth and revenue for 2017/2018. Boyce came in at number 35 in the overall Top 100 list. See top 100. We were also delighted that we ranked third highest female led firm under $50m.

"One of the core values of the firm is work-life balance and the firm lives this," Julie Schofield, director from Cooma says. "This has created an environment where it has allowed individuals to grow and develop and maintain a life outside work. This has led to young women seeing the opportunity to have a family and also a fulfilling career. Read here

The Directors are committed to continuing to grow and develop the business in regional Australia. Thank you to our clients, staff and professional colleagues for your continued support and loyalty.
